

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the Second Edition of the Job Forum organized by the Job Search Center at University of oran 2 mohamed ben Ahmed

This event aims to strengthen collaboration between the university and economic partners, while providing our students and graduates with valuable opportunities to connect with professionals, explore career paths, and better understand labor market needs.

Your participation would be a great honor for us and a valuable contribution to the success of this forum. It will also offer your organization the opportunity to showcase its activities, identify potential talents, and engage directly with motivated students and graduates.

The forum will take place on Thursday April 15 at the Central Library of the university of oran 2 mohamed ben Ahmed

We would be grateful if you could confirm your participation at your earliest convenience.

Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Badache Ourda

Head of Job Search Center
